Curriculum Vitae of Muhammad Uzair Khan

I am an enthusiastic and self-motivated person. I enjoy helping and working with people.

My dedication, commitment and work ethic resulted in me being awarded the 2017 AWARD

OF EXELLENCE for World Class Customer Service Award for Ecomnova 1st Call group. This is an award given to the best customer service agent that meet the requirements of being professional when dealing with customers. Due to the company's financial situation they had to close down and I was then offered a job as a sales rep. I took the job to increase my skill ability and with doing so I learnt and now know sale techniques to attract customer and with my previous job in customer service I took my skills I learnt from there to handle my customers/clients with care while making my sales and achieving targets using skills handling with difficult customers and queries/sales with tactfulness and finesse.

Application for Employment.

I would like to apply for the job currently available. I believe I can add value and be an due to my hard work ethic, dedication and willingness to learn. I finding learning to be the weapon and I use the knowledge I gain to strive to be the best. I am a quick learner and always push myself to do better. I keep to my promises and value honesty. A difference can be made when a chance is given and I just need one chance to prove or even let my hard work speak for itself. In my current position I am held responsible with overseeing the company's day to day operations, looking for new business maintaining stock and stock control and sales
